IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.4932 of 2007
Date of Decision: 2.4.2007

Ram Parsad

Petitioner

versus

Presiding Officer Labour Court and others

Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASBIR SINGH

HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE NIRMAL YADAV

Present: Shri B.N.Sehgal, Advocate for the petitioner

Jasbir Singh, J. (Oral)

Vide award dated 13.8.2004, prayer of the petitioner, to reinstate him in service, was declined by the Labour Court. It was case of the petitioner that his service has wrongly been terminated by the respondent-management on 24.2.1997. The Court found his plea wrong, on facts. To say so, reliance has been placed on Ex.M3/1, a receipt executed by the petitioner, vide which, he accepted amount towards full and final settlement from the management and further reliance has been placed upon application made by the petitioner (Annexure P/3), wherein, to withdraw Provident Fund, the petitioner has specifically stated that he had left the work with the management on account of some dispute. Before the Labour Court, an attempt was made to show that the petitioner had not signed the documents, in question. An expert was produced to verify his thumb impression and it was found that a false plea has been taken by the petitioner, to get some illegal gain. In view of findings given by the Labour Court in paragraph Nos.8 to 11, which are perfectly justified, we are not inclined to interfere in the order passed.

Dismissed.

(Jasbir Singh)
Judge

April 02, 2007 (Nirmal Yadav)

gk Judge